KING JAMES A FAST MILER.

DEFEATS ROYAL TOURIST AND SIR JOHN JOHNSON WITH EASE IN 1:38 FLAT.

Sea Cliff Scores in Brilliant Fashion—Woodcraft Takes Another Purse—Bar None Leaves the Maiden Class.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 14.—The 5,000 race-goers who journeyed to the track today to enjoy their favorite sport saw probably the best racing of the meeting. Five favorites winning in gratifying fashion. King James, J. E. Madden's good three-year-old, carried 116 pounds to a cantering victory in the feature race in 1:38 flat, the fastest mile of the meeting. Horsemen and spectators were so impressed with the achievement of King James that they predicted a great chance for the sturdy Plaudit colt in the remaining long-distance fixtures of the season. The pace in King James' race was both fast and even. Sir John Johnson and Royal Tourist alternated as leaders. The favorite clung on tenaciously and with electric swiftness dashed to the front when called upon for a supreme effort at the end of six furlongs. Royal Tourist ran one of the best races of his career in finishing second and disposing of the lightly weighted Sir John Johnson. The opening race of today's splendid card fell to a possible champion in Sea Cliff. The Whitney two-year-old's victory was sensationally achieved. With an inside start and meeting early interference he overcame his difficulties like a genuine cracker-jack and came on and overhauled the flying leaders with such marvelous speed that little else was talked about for an hour afterwards.

The second race was marked by a couple of mild reversals of fortune, the chief being the defeat of the favorite, Woodcraft, by the challenger, Bar None, which was easily beaten in his preceding race in the mud, displayed pronounced improvement today. Woodcraft scored decisively in the seven furlong selling race, Madden's Court Lady succumbed to an outsider in W. L. Oliver's Check in the fifth race, and Harry Payne Whitney's great maiden, Bar None, at 2, scored the first success of his aristocratic career in the last race, at one mile, over inferior opposition.

Tom Shaw is said to have left with $20,000 outstanding markers. The Keene, Sanford and Whitney strings will remain in Saratoga for the next two weeks. Both Celt and Ballot are in near to racing condition and may be seen under colors at the Yonkers meeting. Charles T. Henshall will ship six horses to Yonkers tomorrow. Jockey Gilbert will ride for him.

It is authoritatively announced that Governor Hughes has appointed a commissioner to take evidence in Sheriff John Bradley's case next Monday, and will decide the question of the latter's removal when he receives the referee's report.

George C. Bennett of Memphis was a visitor at the track today. Mr. Bennett said that he thought racing would thrive under present conditions.

It is reported that Christopher Fitzgerald, president of the Brighton Beach Association, is critically ill.

JUSTICE HOYT'S MAHONEY CASE DECISION.

The decision of Justice Hoyt of the Special Sessions of New York in the case against Charles Mahoney, manager of the Hoffman House, was even stronger than those of Justices Bischoff and Gaynor and follows the latter in his opinion that if a man does not make a business of making bets he is a common gambler and does not violate the law. The decision was handed down after Assistant District Attorney Nott and John B. Stanchfield, counsel for Mahoney had submitted briefs. It was a test case brought by District Attorney Jerome and decided by him.

Justice Hoyt's opinion, which is concurred in by Justices Wyatt and Zeller, is as follows:

"The facts in this case are undisputed. It appears from the testimony that on the 10th of July, 1908, at 1:40 p. m., one Herzog approached the defendant, who was standing beside the cigar counter in the cafe of the Hoffman House, and calling him by name said: 'Mahoney, I want you to take a bet.' The defendant's reply to this remark was inaudible, but Herzog thereupon wrote out a memorandum, which was submitted in evidence, and which reads as follows: 'July 10, 1908, Enfield, 30 straight, 3 race, 30 place. Paid 5 race. Nelson H. Herzog.' The statute which Mahoney was charged with violating is not of recent enactment and the amendment of 1908 has not bearing save that the offense has been made a misdemeanor instead of a felony. The court says:

"This case, therefore, presents no unusual features, and what is to be decided is strictly upon the evidence. In the same manner as many other cases of a similar character have been decided in the past in the various courts of the state, the obvious intent of the statute is to prohibit the business of bookmaking or pool-selling and to make any participation in such business a crime. Mere individual betting, unconnected with carrying on a business, does not violate the law. The case resolves itself, therefore, into the simple question of whether the defendant was guilty of anything further than the participation and the making of an individual bet. From the evidence in the case we are forced to reach the conclusion that he was not. No books, papers or other paraphernalia for the purpose of recording bets were found in his possession, nor was any evidence introduced showing the commission of other acts of a similar nature by the defendant.

We are not, by any manner of means, of the opinion that all these elements must be present to prove a violation of the statute. We do believe, however, that to hold a man guilty of a crime something more must be shown than the mere receipt of a sum of money and the admission that it referred to a game of chance. There must be some evidence which would justify the court in presuming that the defendant was engaged in the business of recording bets and wagers and in acts which are incidental to that business. Participation in such a business may be shown in a number of ways, but in the present case proof of that character is entirely lacking."

District Attorney Jerome said that no appeal was possible and that he was sorry that he had not had the chance to argue the case in the Supreme Court on a writ of habeas corpus. As to the effect of the decision upon bookmaking in the county Mr. Jerome refused to give an opinion.

CHICAGO 1908 RACING ROMANCE.

From abroad comes the locally interesting information that Chicago lovers of racing are to be given an opportunity of viewing their favorite sport. Location, a track in Michigan, "within an hour's ride of Chicago." Fine. Since such a train as would transport passengers to a race track could not reach the border line within two hours, the train must be a ship. Or maybe the swift and palatial steamer City of Traverse is to take the eager enthusiasts over. It is a great thing that Chicago people are to go to a racing in Michigan when the Michiganders have to go to Canada to see the gallopers gallop.

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE HOPEFUL STAKES.

The Hopeful is one of those great stakes which the late William C. Whitney and his associates devised soon after they took the Saratoga track over from G. Walbaum. Being a produce stakes, several seasons necessarily passed before its first closing culminated in a race, its first running occurring in 1903, when James R. Keene's Delhi led the subsequent American Derby winner, Highball, at the winning line. Its greatest value was in 1904, when the splendid filly Tanya easily vanquished Rose of Dawn, Hot Shot and eight more tolling opponents. Then came the Sanford victory that gave Mohawk II. a reputation he failed to maintain afterwards. Peter Pan won splendidly in 1906 when, with 130 pounds up, he vanquished McArter in 1:12. The record of the race is:

| Year. | First. | Jockeys. | Wt. | Second. | Wt. | Third. | Wt. | Val. | Time. |
|-------|-------------|------------|-----|--------------|-----|------------|-----|----------|-------|
| 1903 | Delhi | Gannon | 112 | Highball | 112 | Palmbearer | 112 | $22,275 | 1:13 |
| 1904 | Tanya | Hildebrand | 127 | Rose of Dawn | 112 | Hot Shot | 115 | 29,790 | 1:13 |
| 1905 | Mohawk II. | Bedford | 130 | Athlete | 115 | Juggler | 112 | 16,490 | 1:13 |
| 1906 | Peter Pan | W. Knapp | 130 | McArter | 122 | Pope Joan | 112 | 17,640 | 1:12 |
| 1907 | Jim Gaffney | Nicol | 115 | Fair Play | 125 | Bar None | 115 | 17,500 | 1:15 |

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE MERCHANTS' AND CITIZENS' HANDICAP.

The Merchants' and Citizens' Handicap is a long-established feature of Saratoga racing and in its time has been contested many of the most celebrated horses of American turf history. Its value has been considerably cut down this year, but holds out the prospect of a race up to its standard of former years. The record of the event since 1901 is as follows:

| Year. | First. | Age. | Jockeys. | Wt. | Second. | Age. | Wt. | Third. | Age. | Wt. | Val. | Time. |
|-------|---------------|------|-----------|-----|--------------|------|-----|-------------|------|-----|---------|-------|
| 1901 | Herbert | (4) | L. Smith | 114 | Chucatanunda | (3) | 104 | Lucent | (3) | 90 | $2,105 | 1:50 |
| 1902 | Herbert | (5) | L. Smith | 122 | Keynote | (3) | 96 | Whisk. King | (3) | 104 | 5,950 | 1:56 |
| 1903 | Hermis | (4) | Odum | 124 | Irish Lad | (3) | 120 | Rigodon | (3) | 103 | 6,275 | 1:51 |
| 1904 | Molly Brant | (4) | Odum | 117 | Broomstick | (3) | 122 | Reservation | (4) | 104 | 5,650 | 1:51 |
| 1905 | Outcome | (4) | Baird | 99 | Proper | (5) | 117 | Spanker | (4) | 107 | 2,300 | 2:02 |
| 1906 | Red Leaf | (4) | Koerner | 100 | Bedouin | (4) | 117 | Outcome | (5) | 110 | 2,300 | 2:02 |
| 1907 | Running Water | (4) | W. Miller | 119 | Dandelion | (5) | 118 | Clairgorm | (5) | 113 | 2,300 | 1:58 |

Run at 1 1-16 miles in 1901, then at 1 1-8 miles until 1905.

KEENE AND HAGGIN: SOUTH AMERICA.

One Hundred Youngsters to Be Sent to Argentina to Be Publicly Sold.

New York, August 14.—So many wild and spiteful stories are being published here that it would seem as if the enemies of the sport of racing had a publication bureau at work.

The alleged moral of the ruin of the sport. The latest stories are about Mr. Keene and Mr. Haggin deserting America for racing in Europe and the Argentine Republic. The true facts are that both these extensive breeders, having their home market ruined temporarily by the Hughes crusade, are seeking another market for their youngsters. Mr. Keene used to farm his surplus and Mr. Haggin has farmed and shared and raced himself, besides publicly selling a large number of youngsters each year. The English market is small and English filled. In South America it is broader and more open. After having had it examined Mr. Keene has decided to ship twenty and Mr. Haggin about eighty yearlings and two-year-olds to be sold at Buenos Ayres, capital of the Argentine Republic. In September the horses will leave by Valesquez of the L. & H. line August 20.

Of the venture Mr. Keene said: "I do not know anything about Mr. Haggin's plans, but I will say that I intend to ship twenty ship twenty fillies, yearlings and two-year-olds, to Buenos Ayres. They will be sold at auction there and will not be raced in my interests. No race horses are known to farm in the shipment." "Is it true that you have leased Baldston Lodge at Newmarket, England, for training quarters?" Mr. Keene was asked.

"The report is absolutely without foundation," was the reply. "I do not say that I will not race some horses in England next year, but there is no truth in the report I intend to operate a large racing stable on the other side."

THIRTY LEADING HORSES.

The two-year-old, Sir Martin, heads the list of the thirty horses that have won the most money so far this year. Then, in order, follow the two three-year-olds, Fair Play and Colin. The crack four-year-olds, Ballot and Jack Atkin, are fourth and fifth respectively. But one horse older than a four-year-old has a place in this select list, thirty, being the old warrior of the track, Rapid Water. The thirty and their winnings are:

| Horse. | Age. | 1st. | 2d. | 3d. | Win. | Total |
|-------------|------|------|-----|-----|-----------|-------|
| Sir Martin | 2 | 3 | 0 | 0 | $63,490 | |

MADDEN'S TWO-YEAR-OLD LESSONS.

For many years John E. Madden has made it a point to train a few two-year-olds to race over a distance of ground. Races for horses of all ages are the particular spots in which he selects to drop a seasoned youngster. His colt, Schleswig, failed at Saratoga over the mile course to race to the Madden standard. It is probable that between now and the late autumn season he will send to the post several better ones. In the fall setting of 1907 at the Brooklyn Jockey Club's course he upset all calculations of shrewd horsemen by defeating M. F. Dwyer's champion long-distance performer, Ben Brush, with Plaudit, a son of Himyar. About five years later his handsome chestnut colt, The Minute Man, raced McChesney, the western idol, off his feet. The latter was an odds-on favorite and smart horsemen declared his frictionless stride would wear him out in going the first three-quarters. The Minute Man quickly dispelled this opinion by opening a gap of several lengths at the rise of the barrier. This advantage he not only maintained, but increased in the run through the stretch.

TURF MEN OF EAST ARE HOPEFUL.

Saratoga Dinner Brings Out Strong Sentiment—John Sanford Denounces Hypocrisy.

New York, August 14.—That leading turfmen have not as yet lost hope for the future of racing in the state of New York was shown by the enthusiasm of those who attended a dinner at Saratoga an evening or two ago. Among those present were Andrew Miller, Frank Bishop, R. T. Wilson, J. H. B. Dwyer, John Sanford, E. F. Cowdin, A. Daingerfield, Matt J. Winn, Charles Grainger, A. J. Joyner, John J. Hyland, Thomas Welsh and many others.

Numerous speeches were made, in which it was pointed out that racing still had a host of friends who were waiting for a silver lining to the clouds now hanging over the sport. Also that in time the old prosperity would return and that meanwhile all those who have the interests of racing at heart should see to it that the turf receives the most loyal support.

Before the dinner was at an end the turfmen pledged themselves to keep up the fight for the turf's salvation and to do all in their power to maintain the integrity of the sport. The enthusiasm was marked and nobody appeared to have the blues.

John Sanford said what he had to say with great spirit.

"It is evident that nothing can be expected by way of assistance to the turf from the men who run away at the first sign of trouble," said Mr. Sanford, "and it is left to the rank and file to uphold that honorable institution, the American turf."

Mr. Sanford did not name any particular turfmen, but the recent rumors of the defection of some of the biggest owners of thoroughbred stables roused the master of Hurricana Stud to a defense of American racing and was loudly applauded.

Mr. Sanford also had something to say of the folly of legislators in passing laws which satisfied their consciences, but which tended to make hypocrites of the people, and England and the United States were specialists in the passage of such laws, Mr. Sanford pointed out.

He suggested that it might be a good thing for the English and American people to follow the wholesome example of France and treat racing as a national sport.

Richard T. Wilson, Jr., followed Mr. Sanford with an urgent plea to horsemen and all other persons connected with racing to hang together and strive to make the best of conditions until a brighter day dawns.

THE RECORD OF GAME OLD OXFORD.

Jimmy McLaughlin's good old gray racer, Oxford, is not able to foot it along with the swiftest as well as he could a couple of years back, but he can still win when placed right and has been much more than a useful horse to his owner. In his best estate Oxford was not far away from a high-class horse. As the winner of the Oriental, Ascot, Babylon, Flying, Richmond and Westchester Handicaps, besides being frequently placed in other important events, he ranked well as a stake winner and at his best was a hard horse to beat at any distance up to a mile. His good record is:

| Oxford, gr. h. (1902), by Faraday—Aunt Belle. | Age. | Sts. | 1st. | 2d. | 3d. | Unp. | Won. |
|---|------|------|------|-----|-----|------|----------|
| 1905 | 2 | 16 | 3 | 3 | 1 | 9 | $ 3,350 |
| 1906 | 3 | 20 | 10 | 5 | 5 | 10 | 21,885 |
| 1907 | 4 | 31 | 7 | 5 | 9 | 10 | 12,950 |
| 1908 | 5 | 28 | 2 | 4 | 3 | 19 | 2,285 |
| 1909 | 6 | 22 | 4 | 2 | 6 | 10 | 2,415 |

BAYONET A JUMPER OF FIRST CLASS.

Of late Madden has been handling Bayonet for Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., although when he runs the name of William Walker, one of Madden's helpers, appears on the program as his trainer. In his hands Bayonet has improved greatly, and he comes pretty close to being the best jumper in the country today. Last season the Handspring-Volario gelding did better, but was far from a finished fencer. He ran nine times and won one race and $1,315. But this season Mr. Hitchcock's horse has been unplaced but once, when he stumbled, second but once—when Sanctus beat him—and has won six out of eight races and $7,300.

If the racing situation clears up by next spring, it is said that Madden and Hitchcock will launch out with one of the strongest strings of jumpers ever campaigned in the country and Madden will train.

Bayonet had little racing as a two-year-old, when he was twice unplaced. He ran but four races in his three-year-old form and in them was but once third, earning $75.

MADDEN STABLE WINNINGS TO DATE.

An eastern stab dash writer says: "A recapitulation of John Madden's accounts shows the master of Hamburg Place to be $160,000 winner this season. The biggest contribution to this total is Sir Martin's $63,000. Fayette has won $23,000, Edward $15,000, King James, $8,000, Joe Madden, $5,000, and Lawton Wiggins, $5,000."

Go to! The real figures are easy to compile. Here they are:

| Horse. | Won. | Horse. | Won. |
|---------------------------|-----------|----------------|----------|
| Sir Martin | $63,490 | King James | $12,407 |
| Fayette | 23,050 | Joe Madden | 5,770 |
| Edward | 14,225 | Lawton Wiggins | 5,890 |
| Madden's total to date is | $143,592 | | |

MUD RACING AT FORT ERIE.

TRACK IN SUCH CONDITION THAT HORSES HAVE TO TAKE TO THE OUTSIDE.

Croelin Lands the Steeplechase for Corrigan—Estella C. Wins Again—Burlew & O'Neill Selling Their Horses.

Buffalo, N. Y., August 14.—Track conditions today at Fort Erie were the worst since the opening. The inside half of the track was practically a quagmire and differed fully ten seconds to the mile from the outside half. As a consequence there was a general scurry soon after the starting signal to the good strip, and path racing, made famous by the New Orleans tracks, resulted.

Bad riding contributed to the defeats of the best horses in several instances. C. Ross was the chief offender in this respect. His poor judgment was held to blame for Malecon's defeat in the first by Dorothy Webb and for Washakie's failure in the fifth, won by Lajeunesse. Both his mounts were beaten out by narrow margins. Jockey T. Steele's exhibition on the favorite, Usury, in the fourth brought adverse comment from a number of the disgruntled ones who had backed the horse freely. They were justified in giving vent to their feelings against the rider, for with the least bit of judgment on his part Usury would have won, as she was clearly best and showed it by finishing third after having been taken all over the track and covering almost a sixteenth more ground than the leaders.

The steeplechase went to Croelin. Incidentally it marked the first purse that the Corrigan stable has won so far through the field at this meeting. Croelin was ridden in superb style by Helder, ran under restraint for the first nine furlongs and when called on wore Lights Out down with ease.

Tom Reid, at short odds, was best of a fair field of youngsters that started in the third race and won as his rider pleased. Lajeunesse, purchased by & O'Neill from Burlew & O'Neill before the racing, made good the amount he cost by winning it for his new owner when he landed the purse in the fifth race.

Estella C. repeated her victory of yesterday and led almost from the start in the closing race. The other races were without incident.

It is the intention of Burlew & O'Neill to dispose of their horses now in training, including Charles, in addition to selling to Lajeunesse the firm has also sold Hampton Beauty. While at Saratoga recently Fred Burlew sold his interest in Angelus to F. R. Hitchcock. An offer has also been made by Dennis Stafford to O'Neill for training for Johnny Howard, and the probabilities are that he will change hands tomorrow.

Burlew & O'Neill's desire to sell is brought about by the fact that the recently made plans to race Burlew has been made the offer he desired by a wealthy Frenchman and will train a big stable. Frank O'Neill is also desirous of going abroad and his horses are at present pending for his acceptance of a fat contract to ride for the same owner that Burlew will train for. O'Neill at present weighs about 120 pounds, rides in exercises daily and has been made to require much reducing to get to a weight that would permit his frequent riding.

J. B. Respass will ship thirteen horses to the Empire City track, where they will be raced and then shipped to Montreal.

Jockey Berzen left today for New York, where he will ride for his contract employer, Joe Marrone. Jockey Nicol will leave for New York to ride Charles Edward in the Yonkers Handicap at Empire City.

J. Butler was suspended for three days by the starter in yesterday's last race for disobedience at the post.

James Milton, who wielded the flag at Tampa and Havana, will be engaged to do the starting at this town. A considerable number of horses now here will be raced there.

KOERNER HAS A GOOD DAY AT SEATTLE.

Seattle, Wash., August 14.—Jockey Koerner's horsemanship was the outstanding feature of today's racing at The Meadows. The Hildreth rider piloted the first three winners in a manner indicating that he is back to his best saddle form and his services will be increasingly in demand hereafter. The public had ample reason for gratification over today's results, as four of the winners were favorites. In this list were Anna May, Force, Silver Line and Johnstown. J. W. O'Neill, the only favorite out of the list, was the victim of bad racing luck.

The only disciplinary action by the officials today was the imposition of a fine on jockey C. Russell for lack of vigilance at the post with Norgorod. J. O. Keene, the well-known Kentucky horseman, sails for Russia, via Japan and Siberia, with a view to establishing himself as a trainer in the land of the czar, where he achieved signal success a few years ago as trainer for General Lazareff, the Russian nobleman for whom Jockey Rakeba now rides. Keene will train a public stable if no other opening presents itself.

The St. James Stable has obtained second call on the services of jockey Frank. Tomorrow will be one of the big days of the meeting at The Meadows, and the card provided is exceptionally attractive.

HAGGIN'S SHIPMENT TO BUENOS AYRES.

Lexington, Ky., August 14.—Confirmation of the report sent out from New York that James B. Haggin has made up his mind to ship some of his many thoroughbred stallions and mares to market in South America, was forthcoming from Manager Berryman of Elmhurst today. Mr. Berryman said that he would not be able to state the number or the names of the horses to be sent, or fix accurately the date of their departure, until Mr. Haggin now in New York, had finally passed upon selections being made by John Mackey, who, it is understood, is to accompany the shipment and personally represent Mr. Haggin in Buenos Ayres, in which city the horses are to be sold.

The expectation, however, is that there will be five carloads and that ten stallions will be included in the number. The supposition is that the horses will leave here by express early in the coming week and will be at once put on board a steamer sailing from New York to South America.

SARATOGA WANTS MORE RACING.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 14.—Significant of the views the best people of Saratoga entertain concerning racing here is the following letter, which was delivered today to one of the Saratoga Association's most influential officials:

Andrew Miller, Esq.—
Dear Sir: At a meeting of the Saratoga Business Men's Association, held August 13, an unanimous resolution was passed respectfully requesting your association to try to secure as long and favorable dates next year as were formerly enjoyed.

"We also wish to express our pleasure that the high-toned and particular management this year has reflected credit upon our town. We beg to assure you of our willingness to co-operate with you whenever we can be of service."

"Yours very truly,
H. L. Waterbury, C. A. Marshall,
President, Secretary."
